1. Foreign currency transactions: a charge of 3% will be added to all RBC Wealth Management Visa Gold debit card transactions that require currency conversion.
2. Cheque collection: cheque collection refers to the process which takes place when a cheque is paid in that is drawn on a bank outside the country of the currency in which the cheque is denominated – for example, a Sterling cheque drawn on a bank in the US. The cheque is then sent to the bank from which it originated, who in turn make an electronic payment to the recipient's bank to settle the transaction. However, this process can take weeks and the amount subsequently credited to the client's account will represent the original amount of the cheque less the Bank's charges as detailed above and also any charges levied by the third party bank involved. Please contact your Relationship Manager if you require further clarification around this issue.
3. The Bank is not able to collect or clear cheques denominated in Euros.
4. Foreign exchange: the margin charged on foreign exchange transactions will vary according to the size of the transaction. Please contact your usual Relationship Manager for further details.
5. Relationship management charge: where the total relationship value with RBC Wealth Management is under £250,000 or currency equivalent, a relationship management charge will be applied, as detailed overleaf. This charge will be calculated monthly and applied during the following month. It will apply for any month in which the relationship value falls below £250,000 or equivalent.
6. Returned mail: where mail is returned from a client's last known address and the Bank is therefore obliged to retain mail returned, a charge as detailed above will commence from the date that mail is first returned and will be applied quarterly thereafter until a valid new address is provided.
7. Miscellaneous charges: the Bank is entitled to reclaim its reasonable expenses and costs (including, without limitation, time costs and reasonable legal fees) in connection with any other work or matters relating to the Account (as defined in the Bank's General Terms and Conditions).

Other currencies: The Bank shall levy charges in currencies other than those shown above using exchange rates as determined in its sole discretion. Please contact your usual Relationship Manager for further information.

We reserve the right to amend charges at our discretion. If we increase a charge for a basic account service we will give you at least one month notice of the increase.

The charges outlined in this General Banking Charges document apply from the effective date stated on the front of this document until such time as the charges are revised by the Bank, giving clients at least 30 days' notice in writing.

* Additionally, we reserve the right to recover charges and commissions levied by our agents or third party correspondent banks in connection with the transmission of funds. These may include, but are not restricted to, long distance telephone calls, postage, courier/messenger services, legal fees and insurance.

 This charge will be calculated at the time of breaking either the Fixed Term Deposit or Expatriate Choice accounts.

 In circumstances where RBCCI is at fault, there will be no charge made to the client.
