

RBC WEALTH MANAGEMENT APPOINTS FIDUCIARY SERVICES CHIEF OF STAFF

Jersey, 4 November 2015 – RBC Wealth Management, part of Royal Bank of Canada, today announces the appointment of Daniel Bisson to Chief of Staff, Fiduciary Services at RBC Wealth Management – International.

Based in Guernsey, Mr Bisson will be responsible for Business Management and for managing projects aimed at transforming the Fiduciary Services business and for delivering its strategy. He reports directly to David Foster, Head of Fiduciary Services, and will join the Fiduciary Services Management Committee.

RBC Wealth Management's Fiduciary Services business includes RBC's Channel Islands-based trust and private client fiduciary services business, as well as its tax advisory practice and RBC cees, which provides employee benefit plan services to corporates.

David Foster, Head of Fiduciary Services, commented: "Daniel is a highly-talented individual who brings significant experience and industry knowledge to this newly-created role. We continue to see tremendous opportunities for our fiduciary services business, which is acknowledged as one of the leading operators in the private client segment. I look forward to working closely with him as we continue to grow our Jersey and Guernsey-based business and build on our success to date."

Mr Bisson was previously Head of Business Development Execution and Delivery at RBC Wealth Management. He has held a number of senior roles managing the needs of international high net worth clients with a focus on wealth structuring, and establishing and managing trusts and other fiduciary structures. He is a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners.
