RBC WEALTH MANAGEMENT RECOGNISED AT INAUGURAL CHANNEL ISLANDS EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY AWARDS

Jersey, 19 September 2016 – RBC Wealth Management was recognised for its support of diversity and inclusion in the workplace at the inaugural Channel Islands Equality and Diversity Awards, held at the Pomme d’Or hotel in Jersey on 16 September.

The awards, which were created by Liberate, the Channel Islands equality charity, celebrate Channel Islands organisations that have demonstrated exceptional regard for diversity, equality and inclusivity within their workplace over the last 12 months. RBC Wealth Management won the ‘Best Medium to Large Employer’ award category.

Speaking of the award, Stuart Rutledge, CEO, RBC Wealth Management – International said: “We’re thrilled to be recognised by Liberate for RBC’s ongoing commitment to fostering and creating a work environment that not only demonstrates diversity and inclusion, but champions it in the Channel Islands. We believe that diversity makes our organisation stronger and can empower our employees to grow and achieve more. I look forward to continuing the momentum we’ve gained in creating an inclusive work culture and supporting diversity in the Channel Islands.”
