ABOUT THIS PRODUCT

- 1.1. A Notice Account product is comprised of a Notice Account in which funds are deposited prior to a Notice of Withdrawal being served and, after a Notice of Withdrawal is served, a Notice Contract for an available Notice Contract Tranche which shall apply to such funds held in the Notice Account as specified in your Notice of Withdrawal.
- 1.2. All funds must be held within the Notice Account until such time that the Notice Period applicable to funds which are subject to a Notice Contract is served and expires in relation to such funds.
- 1.3. The Notice Account is a non transactional account and the only permitted activities on this account are the deposit of funds from your Executive Plus Account and the serving of a Notice of Withdrawal of funds from the Notice Account for an available Notice Contract Tranche, such funds capable of being withdrawn after the expiry of the relevant Notice Period in accordance with these Notice Account Terms and Conditions.
- 1.4. An Executive Plus account from which funds may be transferred to and from a Notice Account and in the same currency as the Notice Account is required prior to opening a Notice Account.
- 1.5. We will produce quarterly statements for each Notice Account and will issue confirmations for each amount which is the subject of a Notice Contract in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. This information will also be accessible via our online service.
- 1.6. The Notice Account is available in Sterling and US Dollars and the minimum balance which must be held in the Notice Account is GBP100,000 or USD150,000 to be eligible for the interest rates and features applicable to such Notice Account.
- 1.7. The maximum aggregate funds which may be placed within Notice Accounts by any single Client Relationship is the currency equivalent of CAD25 million (by way of reference to the Prevailing Market Exchange Rate), or such other amount as we may (at our absolute discretion) agree.
- 1.8. We may offer different Notice Contract Interest Rates for Notice Contracts of varying Notice Periods and minimum amounts in respect of which notice is provided (each a "Notice Contract Tranche"). The Notice Contract Interest Rate applicable to each Notice Contract Tranche will be set at our sole discretion. The qualifying criteria for each Notice Contract Tranche may be

- different and not all Notice Contract Tranches may be available to all Client Relationships.
- 1.9. We may withdraw the availability of any Notice Contract Tranche at our sole discretion. In such case, we will provide you with the number of days of notice which corresponds with that Notice Contract Tranche before it is withdrawn. whereupon it will not be possible to enter into a Notice Contract on the terms of such Notice Contract Tranche. For the avoidance of doubt. and by way of example, if a 91 Day Notice Contract Tranche which is subject to a specified Notice Contract Interest Rate is withdrawn, you will be provided with a minimum of 91 calendar days notice of the intended withdrawal of such a Notice Contract Tranche. Following the expiry of 91 calendar days, no further Notice Contracts will be permitted on the same terms of such a Notice Contract Tranche. This notice is provided to you in the event you wish to enter into a Notice Contract on the terms of the Notice Contract Tranche prior to it being withdrawn. Subject to Section 1.10 below, we will always provide at least one Notice Contract Tranche applicable to the funds held in your Notice Account.
- 1.10. Where funds are subject to a Notice Contract and the related Notice Contract Tranche is being withdrawn the funds that become available at expiry of the Notice Period applicable to the Notice Contract:
 - cannot be paid back into the Notice Account; and
 - ii) must be paid to your Executive Plus Account; or
 - iii) you may enter into a new Notice Contract specifying a Notice Period which corresponds with another Notice Contract Tranche available to you at such a time.

1. HOW NOTICE CONTRACTS APPLY TO FUNDS HELD IN A NOTICE ACCOUNT

- 1.1. Subject to Section 4.3 below, in order to access funds held in your Notice Account and to establish a Notice Contract, you will be required to provide a Notice of Withdrawal to us before 11:00 a.m. GMT that you wish to withdraw funds at the end of the Notice Period beginning on the date of such a notice on the terms of an available Notice Contract Tranche.
- 1.2. Any funds that you request to be withdrawn shall be subject to a Notice Contract on the terms of the Notice Contract Tranche which corresponds to the Notice Period and the amount of funds you wish to withdraw.

- 1.3. Funds held in the Notice Account which are subject to a Notice Contract are not available until the expiry of the Notice Period of such a Notice Contract. Funds which are held in the Notice Account which are not subject to a Notice Contract are not available for use until a Notice of Withdrawal is issued specifying a Notice Period and following the expiry of such a Notice Period applicable to these funds.
- 1.4. The minimum amount of funds which may be placed on notice for withdrawal is GBP50,000 or USD75,000. The minimum Notice Period applicable to the withdrawal of funds shall correspond with the lowest number of days of any Notice Period applicable to Notice Contract Tranches available to you at the time of such a notice.
- 1.5. If you require more than one Notice Contract per Notice Account you must advise us in writing. It may not always be possible for you to have more than one Notice Contract per Notice Account and in such circumstances we will advise you of this.
- 1.6. Where the funds held in a Notice Account for which you provide notice to withdraw funds results in the balance which is not subject to a Notice Contract falling below the minimum balance applicable to a Notice Account then the total balance held in the Notice Account will be placed on notice and subject to the relevant Notice Contract.
- 1.7. Upon the expiry of a Notice Period for a Notice Contract, the funds which are subject to such a Notice Contract will automatically be paid to your Executive Plus Account unless prior to expiry of such a Notice Contract you specify a new Notice Period applicable to those funds on the terms of an available Notice Contract Tranche. For avoidance of doubt, any funds which are not subject to a Notice Contract will remain in the Notice Account.
- 1.8. If the expiry date of a Notice Period falls on a day which is not a Business Day then the funds may only be withdrawn on the next day which is a Business Day. For avoidance of doubt, the Notice Contract Interest Rate applicable to the Notice Contract will only apply to the days falling within the Notice Period.
- 1.9. Subject to Section 2.10 below, we will not assume that the funds held in a Notice Contract will automatically roll into another Notice Contract and any funds held subject to a Notice Contract will be automatically transferred to the Executive Plus Account which is connected to the Notice Account unless you expressly instruct

- us to retain these funds in the Notice Account.
- 1.10. Where there are multiple Notice Contract
 Tranches available to you, transferring from one Notice Contract to another Notice Contract is permitted provided:
 - i) you instruct us to do so before 11:00 a.m.
 GMT on the expiry date of the Notice Period applicable to the Notice Contract; and
 - ii) the Notice Period of the Notice Contract applicable to the Notice Account to which these funds are transferred is the same or longer than the Notice Contract from which the funds are transferred.

- 2.5. Where you provide notice to withdraw the full balance of a Notice Account, interest will be paid to your Executive Plus Account held with us and will not be paid into the Notice Account.
- 2.6. Interest earned on funds held in the Notice Account which are not subject to a Notice Contract will be paid monthly.
- 2.7. Interest earned on funds held in the Notice Account which are subject to a Notice Contract will be paid on the expiry date of the Notice Period applicable to such Notice Contract, or if such date is not a Business Day, the following day which is a Business Day.

- 3.5. The Notice Period Start Date for a Notice of Withdrawal for US dollars held in a Notice Account will be two Business Days after the date applicable to Sterling funds in accordance with this section 4.4. - 3.6. In the event your Notice Account is terminated by us in accordance with RBCEL's General Terms and Conditions, we may deliver any funds which are not subject to a Notice Contract in your Notice Account to your Executive Plus Account (which may also be closed in accordance with RBCEL's General Terms and Conditions).
