Please refer to our Retail Terms and Conditions for Clients of Financial Advisers and the associated Risk Guide for further information.

Note: Restrictions can only be applied within our Bespoke Discretionary Fund Management (DFM) service. RBCBD can consider ethical restrictions defined by the Ethical Investment Research Service (Moody's), Industrial Classification Benchmarks (ICB) & Company Restrictions. Your adviser will review your requirements against these to ensure we can support them.

Any investment restriction that you may impose to the management of the portfolio will only apply to direct investments because of the difficulty and cost of keeping permanently up to date with the underlying holdings in collective investment schemes or other packaged retail investment products. You further understand that any such restriction set by you may affect the performance of the portfolio.
